

ay

(as in play)

(at the end of a word)

day gay lay may bay ray say

stay gray pray clay

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

_____ = _____

ay

(as in play)
(at the end of a word)

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

say way day hay jay may

pay lay ray gay bay nay

_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____
_____	_____
-----	-----
_____	_____

_____	_____	_____
-----	-----	-----
_____	_____	_____

ay

(as in play)

(at the end of a word)

lay may say gray slay clay sway

tray pray fray stray

ay

(as in play)
(at the end of a word)

jay	may	nay	pay	ray	say
clay	stay	pray	play	slay	sway

“a jay on the branch” “may not go to the park”

“pay the clerk” “a ray of sunshine” “say it in a soft voice”

“stay in the class” “the ship sways back and forth”

Words to Spell:

ay

(as in play)
(at the end of a word)

may say

ray

bay

way

lay

day

pay

say

jay

gay

nay

“may go for a ride” “swam in the bay” “said nay”

“a blue jay” “lay it on the plate” “do it this way”

ay

(as in play)
(at the end of a word)

say gay hay jay may way ray tray slay sway stay gray pray clay

“stay in the jeep” “may go to the park” “work with clay”

“the gray rock” “a clay pot” “sway in the wind”

“a small jay on the tree” “put the pork on the tray”

Words to Spell:
